Building the House of Damages:

Using a Vocational Expert/Life Care Planner & Economist in Documenting the Damages in Personal Injury Cases

When: Tuesday, April 2, 2019
Seminar and Dinner: 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Where: Ruth's Chris Steak House, West Palm Beach, FL

Edmond Provder, CRC, CLCP, D-ABVE
Certified Life Care Planner
Occupational Assessment Services, Inc.

Edmond Provder is the founder and president of Occupational Assessment Services, Inc., a published author of multiple articles and is regarded as an expert in Vocational Evaluator Services, and in Employability and Social Security.

Kristin Kucsma, M.A.
Principal of the Firm and Chief Economist
Sobel Tinari Economics Group

Kristin Kucsma is an award winning economist and highly sought public speaker. Ms. Kucsma has analyzed economic damages in thousands of cases and has testified, throughout the country, in Federal and State Courts.

Complimentary Continuing Legal Education Dinner / Seminar for Lawyers and Paralegals
No Fee for Attendees | 2.0 FL CLE Credits

Course Highlights:

Life Care Planning – Future Medical Needs
Establishing Earnings Capacity in Severe Child Injury Cases
Calculating and Documenting Economic Damages
Calculating Lifetime Compensation
Valuing Special Care Services

PRIORITY RESPONSIBLE FUNDING, LLC
RESPONSIBLE FUNDING FOR TRIAL LAWYERS AND THEIR INJURED CLIENTS

CLE GOLD Sponsor

Priority Responsible Funding can provide immediate cash funding to the medical providers eliminating both waiting time and risk of non-payment at the conclusion of the patient's case.

For CLE Questions or sponsorship opportunities, please contact:
Emely Ocampo I Email: emelyocampo@oasinc.org